Az. Ag. Pian delle Querci, Montalcino: DOC Rosso di Montalcino Il Picchio

Montalcino offers great views and great wine, but at a price. Now, Tuscan Vineyard Imports offers traditional and affordable wine from Montalcino from Pian delle Querci. Their Rosso, Brunello and Brunello Riserva adhere to tradition by making wine in massive oak barrels (Botti) and keeping production small. The result is classic wine that pays homage to the elegance and sense of terroir that is possible to achieve in Montalcino with the Sangiovese Grosso clone.

Pian delle Querci's Brunello Riserva is made only in outstanding vintages, ages gracefully but is also surprisingly ready to drink thanks to its elegant tannins, balanced acidity and ripe fruit. This winery consistently receives 90 Pt. scores by Wine Enthusiast and high marks from L'Espresso. Slow Wine awarded Pian delle Querci's Riserva 2007 and 2009 Brunello their Vino Slow Award. PdQ's Rosso has also been recognized by Slow Wine for value. Website: Pian delle Querci.

Il Picchio Rosso di Montalcino DOC, 2016
Sangiovese Grosso

Production 12,000 Bottles

2014 - Blossomy fragrant & extremely enjoyable.
Slow Wine

A solid example of a traditional style from a natural winemaker of Rosso from the northern side of Montalcino with bright fresh cherry on the nose and palate.

Fruit on the palate is balanced by ample acidity and sweet tannins. A hint of licorice is on the pleasant finish.

Brunello di Montalcino, 2010 DOCG Brunello di Montalcino Sangiovese Grosso

Production 35,000 Bottles

Slow Wine, Vino Slow

The wine offers earthiness and dried flowers on the nose, then develops harmoniously and smoothly to gradually enwrap the palate and line it with juice. An excellent interpretation of the vintage at a tempting price.

Slow Wine

1.5 L Magnum 2010 "Vintage of the Century"
