CANTINA FRATELLI MOSCONE: ROERO ARNEIS DOCG

In Piedmont, the Moscone family has been making wines since 1877. Their 18 Hectare vineyards are spread throughout the prestigious Monforte d'Alba region in the prestigious Langhe. There are two separate wineries with vilification facilities in order to insure that the fruit quickly arrives to the cellar once harvested in order to maintain peak freshness and quality of fruit. Consulting enologist Dr. Donato Lanati oversees both facilities, is on staff at the University of Turin and is a distinguished founder of the Enosis Meraviglia research center. Two Moscone brothers and the widow of the third run the winery and oversee every aspect in the vineyard and the cellar.

All estate grown fruit.

Roero Arneis DOCG, 2017,
Moscato Bianco Production
10,000 Bottles

All Arneis fruit is from the prestigious area of Roero.

Notes of ripe pear, tropical fruit and chamomile on the nose.

Big, fruity and bold palate with notes of pears, marzipan. Finish is long with good acidity and mineral notes that make this a fresh medium bodied white.
